Thanks a-latte!

Why do we call this Fresh Grounded Faith?

Well, sister, because we don't want our faith to be stale or shallow! I want you to get a venti portion of truth this weekend that is rooted and grounded in God's love.

This event is for you—for you to connect with God and connect with each other. You've been prayed for and I'm so thankful you're here!

A big thanks-a-latte goes to our host, First Baptist Church Plant City, and the 11 Co-Host Churches who've joined hands and hearts to bring this Kingdom-minded event to the Plant City area.

Kay Morris has served with so many wonderful volunteers. I speak for all the sisters when I say "thank you" from the bottom of our hearts for all your hard work behind the scenes, planning and preparing—we are so grateful to you. And, I owe a super-sized thanks to the FGF staff who worked so hard to help bring FGF to you. Oh girl, they are the best and deserve a "venti thanks-a-latte."

You'll find that my friend, Angie Smith, has a message just for you. She will enrich your life just as she enriches mine. I know my friend, Karen Abercrombie, will be as much an inspiration to you as she is to me. And, Michael O'Brien... well, girl... get ready to have your spirit lifted—he will sing Heaven down!

Sister, you may have come empty; you may have arrived with a big hole in the bottom of your cup of faith. You're in the right place—safe and welcome. God will fill you with His peace. Let's invite Him to do just that.

Bless you,

Jennifer

getting to know Jennifer Rothschild

Jennifer is a recovering perfectionist who has learned to live beyond limits ever since her life drastically changed at the age of fifteen when she lost her sight. Now, more than 35 years later, she boldly and compassionately teaches women how to find contentment, walk with endurance, and celebrate the ordinary.

Known for her substance, signature wit, and down-to-earth style, Jennifer weaves together colorful illustrations, biblical principles, and music to help women live empowered.

As a speaker, author, and accomplished singer-songwriter, she travels internationally offering fresh, sensible, biblical advice to audiences who, like her, are determined to pursue healthy and fulfilling lives in spite of their circumstances. Jennifer is an avid listener of audio books, a C.S. Lewis junkie, and has a weakness for dark chocolate and robust coffee. She and her Dr. Phil live in Springfield, Missouri, and have two sons, Connor and Clayton, a lovely daughter-in-law, Caroline, and new grandson, Tripp. When she is not traveling, Jennifer enjoys nature walks and riding a bicycle built for two.

She's the author of 14 books, including the best-selling Lessons I Learned in the Dark and Me, Myself and Lies. Her newest projects include Psalm 23: The Shepherd with Me, a video-based Bible study, and the 4:13 Podcast with Jennifer Rothschild.
